ART HISTORY MINOR

The minor in Art History has been created in order to fulfill a need expressed by students in both ARHU and in other colleges and schools, who want to study Art History, but who do not plan to consider Art History as either a major (33 credits) or part of a double major (33 credits).

CATALOGUE DESCRIPTION
The minor in Art History introduces students to a range of art-historical periods, problems, and methodologies and is intended at once to broaden and deepen the student’s knowledge of arts and humanities.

Students are required to take nine credits of 200-level surveys in the history of art. They may choose any three (3) broad surveys from among the following 3-credit courses:
- ARTH 200: Art of the Western World to 1300
- ARTH 201: Art of the Western World after 1300
- ARTH 250: Art and Archaeology of Ancient America
- ARTH 275: Art and Archaeology of Africa
- ARTH 290: Arts of Asia

In addition, students are required to take nine (9) credits of upper-level art history courses. They may choose any three (3) upper-division (300- or 400-level) 3-credit courses in Art History (ARTH prefix).

A total of six (6) credits may be transferred into the minor from other institutions or programs. These transferred credits include those from study-abroad programs. Study-abroad credit requires the prior approval of the Director of Undergraduate Studies.

A total of 18 credits is required. All courses presented for the minor must be passed with a grade of C or better.

OVERSIGHT AND RECORD KEEPING
Oversight of this minor program will be through the normal academic processes of the Department of Art History and Archaeology. The Department’s Director of Undergraduate Studies and the Departmental advisors will be responsible for ensuring that students are properly advised and that records are appropriately kept.
