MEMORANDUM

TO: James F. Harris
Dean, College of Arts and Humanities

FROM: Victor Korenman
Associate Provost for Academic Planning and Programs

SUBJECT: Proposal to Convert the Existing Citation in Ancient Greek Language and Literature to a Minor in Ancient Greek Language and Literature (PCC Log No. 04073)

At its meeting on April 1, 2005, the Senate Committee on Programs, Curricula, and Courses approved your proposal to convert the existing Citation in Ancient Greek Language and Literature to a Minor in Ancient Greek Language and Literature. A copy of the approved proposal is enclosed.

This approval is effective immediately. No student may be allowed to begin the discontinued Citation program after this time, but students who have already taken or who are taking a course towards the Citation must be permitted to complete it if they so choose. All advisers should be notified and the College should ensure that the approved guidelines are followed.

Proposed Action: (A separate form for each) Add ___ Delete ____ Change X

Description: (Provide a succinct account of the proposed action. Details should be provided in an attachment. Provide old and new sample programs for curriculum changes.)

This is a proposal to change our existing citation in Ancient Greek Language and Literature into a Minor.

Justification/Reasons/Resources: (Briefly explain the reason for the proposed action. Identify the source of new resources that may be required. Details should be provided in an attachment.)

Citations are being phased out this year; we want students to have a continuing option to receive recognition for mastering Ancient Greek sufficiently to read texts in the original language.

PROPOSAL FOR CONVERTING THE CITATION IN ANCIENT GREEK LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE INTO A MINOR

1. This is a proposal to convert an existing citation into a minor. The transcript will designate the minor as Classics: Ancient Greek Language and Literature.

2. Catalog Description:
This minor will introduce students to ancient Greek and enable them to read in Greek important works of Greek literature. This minor would require 21 credits, consisting of the following courses:

   Greek 101 Elementary Ancient Greek I (4)
   Greek 102 Elementary Ancient Greek II (4)
   Greek 201 Intermediate Ancient Greek (4)
   Greek 301 Scenes from Athenian Life (3)
   Greek 4xx Either Greek Philosophers (402), Greek Tragedy (403), or Homer (415)(3 credits each)
   An additional CLAS or GREK course at the 300 or 400 level, such as CLAS 374 (Greek Tragedy) or CLAS 330 (Greek Religion)

Students interested in pursuing this minor should consult with the Undergraduate Advisor in the Department of Classics.

All courses offered towards the minor must be passed with a grade of “C” or better.

3. Oversight and Record Keeping.

Oversight of this minor program will be through the Director of Undergraduate Studies in the Classics Department, who will offer regular advising to students pursuing the minor and who will maintain records of student progress.

5. Prerequisites

There are no prerequisites for this minor.
